To Whom It May Concern,

My Wife and I attended an Adoptive Couples retreat in Guthrie, Oklahoma on September 23, 2006. As a treat they provided us with a concert that was done by singer/songwriter Becky Wright. We had never heard of her and had no idea of what type of music she sings, or of any spirituality she may possess. It was not hard to find out that she was a Christian by the testimonies that she shared before and after her songs and that she has an enormous love for children and mankind. My wife and I fell in love with her songs and couldn't wait to purchase her CD's. I asked her if she would ever consider coming to Lawton to do a concert at our contemporary service, which is on Wednesday nights and she said she would be willing to come. On October 18th 2006 she blessed our church with a concert. We were thrilled by the 103 people that showed up, especially since we average about 70 on Wednesday's. Once again she did a terrific job of singing and ministering to us throughout the time we had together. Everyone was thrilled with her songs and lined up to buy CD's and to have her sign autographs. I heard nothing but positive comments about her singing, performance and love for God. The only negative thing I heard was that they wished she could stayed longer to sing more, which was our fault because our members have choir practice after the service, so we do have a time limit on how long we have people preach or sing. My wife and family visited with her after the service and felt blessed to get to know her a little better and to spend time with her boys. We would love to have her back any time
